

TLC Receives NEASC Re-Accreditation and Commendation in 2009

The TLC Rolling Ridge Residential and County Day School programs completed the two year accreditation review by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges.

The review process includes a comprehensive self-evaluation by the member school staff. The data gathered through various steps is compiled, assessed and applied to the school aims and objectives. School self analysis is also related to feedback from the NEASC Commission in light of goals established during previous accreditation reviews.

TLC staff now begin its planning for its five year NEASC accreditation review.

The NEASC membership supports professional development in the skills related to member schools endeavors to remain consistent with the school mission and the improvement of the education, personal development, and citizenship of each student.

TLC administration, staff, students and student families benefit significantly as members of the New England Association of Schools and Colleges.
